THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

June 12th, 2022 - Proverbs 8:22-31; Romans 5:1-5; John 16:12-15

What answers are you waiting for? - Good News Reflection

What don't you know that you hope God will reveal to you? What have you been asking Jesus to tell you that is still unanswered? What teaching of the Church don't you understand or agree with? In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus explains that there is more he'd like to tell us but we can't handle it yet.

Why aren't we ready for it? Because we have to first let the Holy Spirit prepare us. We have to let God transform something within us, and until we surrender to that process, the truth is more of a burden than a blessing, which we readily reject.

Everything that Jesus said and did came from the Father through the Holy Spirit. God gave us that same Spirit, that same Wisdom, that same Truth, but the gift is useless unless we submit to the Spirit's purifying activity.

Of the Trinity, it's the Father who forgives sins. It's Jesus who delivers the forgiveness. And it's the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us and empowers us to go and sin no more.

In the confessional, the priest is the presence of Jesus and the whole Body of Christ (the Church). Absolution is an action of his Holy Spirit, but it's more than just the removal of guilt; it replaces the sinful vice with the virtue that will help us avoid that vice in the future. The Sacrament of Confession is a direct contact with the Holy Trinity who embraces our repentance and transforms us to increase our holiness.

To receive this grace, we only have to be open to it and interested in cooperating with God. Humility is necessary to be teachable and transformable.

The unanswered questions in our lives become personal revelations when we earnestly seek to do the Father's will in unity with Jesus while growing in holiness through the in-dwelling presence of his Holy Spirit.

Pray

Immerse me, Lord, in Your Spirit's waters, and may Your love and power penetrate deep inside of me. I want to be a new creation in You. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW? Abby Fisher

Written by Erica L. Taylor, The Tom Joyner Morning Show

Abby Fisher a former slave from South Carolina, is the author of the first published African America cookbook. She was born in Orangeburg, South Carolina to Andrew James, a white farmer, and Abbie Clifton, a slave, in June 1831. Abby Fisher was freed after the Civil War. After she and her family moved to San Francisco, she entered her food in cooking competitions. Her recipes, especially pickles, jellies, and preserves, became an instant success with friends and the social elite. She became known around town as "Mrs. Abby Fisher, Pickle Manufacturer".

Mrs. Abby recipes were featured in local competition. In 1879, she was awarded a "diploma" at the Sacramento State fair and a year later, she won two medals at the San Francisco Mechanic's' Institute. Her recipes included Sweet Watermelon Rind Pickle, Jumble Cake, Green turtle Soup and Hoe Cake. It is also believed that Mrs. Fisher was the first to present the recipe for fried chicken and waffles.

Since she could not read or write herself, friends encouraged her to record her award-winning foods to share with others. In 1881, Abby Fisher's cookbook was published, "What Mrs. Fisher knows about Southern Cooking: Soups, Pickles, Preserves, etc.", published by the Women's Cooperative Printing Office in San Francisco. Abby Fisher's cookbook known for its unusual spelling of dishes and ingredients that we know today. For example, she would call Jambalaya "Jumberlie", and a dish she called Circuit Hash, was most likely Succotash, and the milanaise sauce she used in her recipe for chicken salad was mayonnaise. It was possibly because of her explanation of the recipes written down by others for her.

In 1984, a century after the first publication, a volume of the cookbook was put up for auction by the Schlesinger library at Harvard University.
