32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 6th, 2022 - 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14, 2 Thessalonians 2:16--3:5, Luke 20:27-38

Why is there no marriage in heaven? - Good News Reflection

Do you believe in the resurrection? That's the question that Jesus indirectly poses when he challenges the Sadducees in this Sunday's Gospel reading.

As Christians, we believe that someday we will experience a resurrection like Christ's after we depart from this present earthly "age" or stage of life. All believers who follow Jesus will live as the angels do. This is why Catholic funeral Masses are Resurrection Masses and use white instead of black as the liturgical color.

But do you believe in the resurrection of love? Jesus explained the resurrection in terms of marriage. A marriage is supposed to be a reflection of God's radical love for his people. Marriage is supposed to unite a man and a woman in an enduring love that is the very presence of God. It gives witness to the world that God's faithfulness and commitment to us is real.

So why would Jesus say that marriage is not a part of the resurrection of the dead? Why won't today's marriages become perfect and continue forever after both husband and wife have entered heaven?

Here on earth, love is imperfectly given and imperfectly received. Therefore, it's constantly dying and being resurrected again, every day, to the extent that each spouse repents and forgives. (The same is true of any friendship.)

Perfect love is God. We live as true children of God when we love our brothers and sisters the way he loves them. Marriage does not exist in heaven because it's an imperfect love: We love our spouses more than we love others. In heaven, we will love our spouses fully (yes, even our ex-spouses!) and we will love everyone else just as much. And those who have loved us poorly will love us better than the best spouse could love us now.

Marriage is only an earthly foreshadowing of the divine, faithful, creative love that we will share with everyone in heaven.

Pray

Do you see Jesus in the Eucharist at Mass? If Zacchaeus' reaction to Christ's presence isn't our reaction, it means our view is still partly obstructed. We need to climb higher.

Thank You, Lord, that through Your Holy Spirit I am able to recognize You. Give me the strength I need to carry out the mission that You have entrusted to me. Amen.

Black Catholic History Month

"The History of Black Catholics in the United States"

By Cyprian Davis

"Cyprian Davis, O.S.B. was an African-American Catholic Monk, Priest, and Historian at St. Meinrad Archabbey in Indiana. He is known for his work on the History of Black Catholicism." (Wikipedia)

The month of November is Black Catholic History Month: a time to remember, celebrate, and give thanks to God for the blessing and contributions of Black Catholics to the Church in the United States. During this month, information from "The History of Black Catholics in the United States" and the "Josephite African American History & Heritage Calendar 2022" will be shared each week in the bulletin. (Fr. Jack)

"You must now give your gifts of Blackness to the whole Church."

(Pope Paul VI – The Pope speaks, 1969 Symposium in Kampala, Uganda)

Please see the insert on Mother Theodore Williams and the Handmaids of Mary.

Our Lady of Consolation Church is hosting a film screening for the entire Diocese of Charlotte as it celebrates its 50th anniversary.

There are six incredible Black men and women who are on the path to Canonization. The Catholic Church is starting to recognize their impact and may soon name any or all of them Saints. On Saturday November 19, 2022 at 2pm, there will a film screening event of "A Place At The Table, African-Americans On The Path To Sainthood. This event will take place at The MACS Fine Arts Center at Charlotte Catholic High School, 7702 Pineville-Mathews Rd Charlotte, N.C. 28226.
